

In numbers

AIR CARGO VITAL STATISTICS

$3.5 trillion – the global e-commerce revenue forecast for 2019.

7.6% – the share of online retail compared to global retail sales. 66% – growth of e-commerce from Asia Pacific to Europe between 2013 and 2015. Those figures show the huge potential of e-commerce.

Top 10 Cargo airlines (FTK, millions) (2016 figures)

Value of goods carried by air

In 2008...

A rise in cargo carried to 62.5 million tonnes (+4.5% on the 59.9 million tonnes in 2017)

Volumes are expected to grow by 4.5% (slower growth than the 9.3% growth of 2017)

Each day in air cargo

(The Value of Air Cargo)

$18.6bn value in cargo shipped

20m parcels are sent

1.1m smartphones are transported

62,500t of humanitarian aid delivered by air per year

16

Cargo revenues forecast to reach $59.2 billion (up 8.6% from 2017 revenues of $54.5 billion)

59,200,000,000.0000

17

Top freight country pairs (WATS, 2017)

Country pair (O-D)	Freight tonnes carried (2016)	% increase
Japan – US	456,588	0.8
China – Japan	401,340	11.6
China – US	371,199	14.2
India – UAE	327,759	2.3
UK – US	327,747	6.4

Unless stated otherwise, all figures are from Economic Performance of the Airline Industry, 2017 End-year report

The world's top cargo airports (2017, ACI)

- Hong Kong, China HKG
- Memphis, United States MEM
- Shanghai, China PVG
- Incheon, Korea ICN
- Dubai, United Arab Emirates DXB
- Anchorage, United States ANC
- Louisville, United States SDF
- Tokyo, Japan NRT
- Paris, France CDG
- Frankfurt, Germany FRA

China's famous "Singles day" saw online shoppers buy goods worth $17.8 billion in 2016, representing 657 million packages

(*Cargo must pick up the pace', www.IATA.org)

Freight traffic by region (by region of registration basis) in 2017: Share of industry-wide FTKs flown

Overall industry % growth year-on-year = 9.0%. The strongest year for air freight demand since 2010 (IATA Annual Review 2017)

